Show and Tell

Program: Hidden Treasures - Bits and Pieces

Wendy's Window

Let's kick things off with a bit of fun! Picture this: two sewing machines are hanging out at a bar. One of them turns to the other and says, "Hey, aren't you a Singer?" The other one replies, "Why, Ja-no-me"? And then the bartender chuckles, "Oh, Brother."

What a fantastic way to start 2026 with our Game Night Bunco game!

In February, we're having a special program where our Bits and Pieces will share their hidden treasures with us. They've created a community quilt that will be presented to Caring Veterans of America to help them in their important work. Commander Terry Cole will be there to accept the quilt. There might even be news coverage of this gift, highlighting the Guild's efforts to support our community.

In March, it's time for Cuddle Quilt sewing after the business meeting until 5:00 p.m. Please bring your sewing machines, mats, rotary cutters, and your friends to make quilts to support our mission.

I'm really looking forward to seeing all of you who can make it on Thursday, February 12, 2026.

The meeting starts at 1:00 p.m., with the doors opening at 12:30 p.m.

Let's wrap things up with some inspiration:

"Quilting is a journey of the heart: it teaches us patience, perseverance, and the joy of creation." - Natalia Bonner

Sierra Mountain Quilters Association General Meeting Minutes, January 8, 2026

The meeting was called to order at 1:01 p.m. by president, Wendy Holt, at the Oakhurst Community Center followed by the flag salute. Wendy introduced herself. She thanked Laura Gonzalez for decorating the table and then recognized January birthdays and anniversaries. She announced that if members have something to sell, they should do it before or after the meeting.

Secretary Janet Morita Dianna Conaway made a motion, Patty Huff seconded, to accept the December 4, 2025, general meeting minutes. The motion carried.

First Vice Presidents, Joan Earnest and Sue Johnson Joan announced she will pass a snack clip board around for members to sign up. The program today is Bunco. In February, Bits and Pieces will present a trunk show. In March, it will be a Cuddle Quilt workday. June is the ice cream social. November will be a veterans' program followed by a house shoes workshop the next day. And December will be the winter luncheon. The remaining months are pending.

Second Vice President, Sue Walker, reported she wants to update current circles: Anything with Fabric - open Bits and Pieces - full Footloose - full A Gathering of Stitchers in YLP - open Treasurer, Dianna Conaway, Lisa Kernaghan announced officers need to sign new cards at the bank. The current scholarship winner, Owen Ogilvie, has received his money. The treasurer's report will be filed for audit.

Membership, Lynn Gray for Ku'ulei Arredondo, reported 2025 ended with 100 members. She encouraged everyone to pay their dues. There will be a quilt show in Folsom, Feb. 6-8. Drawing winners were Laura Gonzalez and Bev Gulley Webmaster, Sally Walker, announced she is updating the website.

Cuddle Quilts, Tricia Lacey, announced Kay Marshall won the cuddle quilt prize for submitting the most cuddle quilts, 31. Shirley MacNeil made 9 and Kathy Millhollon made 8. The next Cuddle Quilt workday will be at the March meeting. All the cuddle quilts have been given away. Patterns are on the website.

Mystery Quilt, Sinta Borland, reported 32 members have signed up. She showed examples of the first block. Information is posted on the web site.

Quilt Show, Wendy Holt for Maria Ciccarelli, announced we have 16 more months until the quilt show. Wendy asked each member to work on the opportunity quilt.
New business

Laura Gonzalez announced the Spring Retreat is coming up in April. A sign-up will be available next month. Overnight stays are available.

Sally Walker reported Kathy Hilton is having a big sale in Fresno on Saturday, Jan. 10, from 9:00 - 2:00. 1034 E. Everett

The meeting was adjourned at 1:38 p.m. followed by show and tell, snacks, and Bunco.

Respectfully submitted by Janet Morita, secretary.

1st Vice President's Message Joan Earnest & Sue Johnson

Well, Bunco was a lot of fun! We really got to mix up the pot and talk to people we barely know as well as being with our good buddies! Thanks for being such a fun group!

For our February meeting (remember, it won't be until February 12) we have a trunk show from one of our circles, Bits & Pieces! It will be great to see what they've been up to and to admire their work!

We love the idea of sharing our quilting and to get to know the circles better. We'd like to put a call out to other circles that might want to do the same thing. Think about it and let us know!

March will be the Cuddle Quilt sewing day. Great way to jumpstart our year, as we've depleted the reserve of cuddle quilts with all the donations we made in 2025. Instead of the meeting ending at around 3, we've secured the building until 5 pm. So stay as long or as short of a time as you want to, and help crank out some more of our amazing quilts!

Cuddle Quilt Corner

Sandy Johnson and Tricia Lacey

I hope everyone is ready to start sewing cuddle quilts! We need quilts for our local charities! Start thinking about our March 5 Guild meeting.

We will be sewing cuddle quilts. I will be bringing jelly rolls, charm packs, backing, batting, and other fabrics for making quilts. If you have a cuddle quilt you haven't finished, bring that to work on. There will be prizes given out throughout the afternoon. So, plan on bringing your sewing machine and join the fun.

Tricia Lacey

Amenities

A get-well card was sent to Patty Vincent who is recovering from surgery
A sympathy card was also sent to Diane Wards family.

QUILT SHOW 2027 – UPDATE

We are still looking to fill in a couple of committee chairs for the 2027 Quilt Show.

The positions are Opportunity Quilt Scheduling and Vendors. Talk to a friend and volunteer together. I can also help with sharing the load.

This is a great opportunity to get to know some of the members better. If you are on the fence, come to our next Quilt Show Committee meeting on Friday, February 6, at 2pm, at Bear Paw.

Don't miss out on the fun!

Thank you – Maria Ciccarelli
